

LGT Private Debt supports Volpi Capital's continued partnership with Cyclomedia

LGT Private Debt has provided debt facilities to support private equity investor Volpi Capital with its continued partnership with Cyclomedia, a leading international provider of intelligent street-level geospatial data and information services.

Pfaeffikon, 28 June 2023. Headquartered in the Netherlands, Cyclomedia provides highly accurate geo-data and software solutions virtualizing the outside world on-screen. Using proprietary cloud-based technologies, Cyclomedia's geo-data platform allows customers to gain actionable insights on tax assessment, asset management, public safety, construction and engineering, utility and transportation as well as insurance and real estate. The company employs over 250 people and operates across Europe and North America.

Colin Wright, a Partner at LGT Private Debt, said: "We are delighted to support Volpi Capital and Cyclomedia in their next growth phase. We believe Cyclomedia will continue to build on its growth trajectory and increase its global customer base, thanks to its unique geospatial solution and superior technology platform. Volpi Capital has recruited an experienced management team with a long track record, and we are excited to be partnering with them."

Mathieu Himpe at Volpi Capital said: "The LGT Private Debt team share our vision for the future of Cyclomedia and have demonstrated their ability to deliver a strong financing solution that meets our growth ambitions."
